ISRAELI RESEARCHERS ANNOUNCE BREAKTHROUGH IN CORONAVIRUS TREATMENT

A group of researchers in northern Israel said Thursday they had achieved a “scientific breakthrough” in treating coronavirus. At a press conference, researchers of the Migal Galilee Research Institute said that the breakthrough had come while they were doing research on coronavirus in birds. A treatment had been discovered which cured the birds infected with coronavirus, and clinical trials at Israel’s Volcani Agricultural Research Institute had confirmed the treatment’s viability.

The basic coronavirus in birds is very similar in patterns of infection and effect of the virus in humans, and the genetic structure of the virus in both humans and birds is very similar, the researchers said. As a result, the treatment devel-

The coronavirus, which surfaced in a Chinese seafood and poultry market late last year, has spread to at least 164 countries, killing more than 12800 and sickening around three hundred thousand people in a matter of months. The World Health Organization has declared the situation a pandemic. The World Health Organization on Wednesday (March 11) declared the novel coronavirus outbreak a pandemic. A pandemic is defined as the "worldwide spread" of a new disease. Whereas, an outbreak is the occurrence of disease cases in excess of what's normally expected and an epidemic is more than a normal number cases of an illness, specific health-related behavior or other health-related events in a community or region, according to the World Health Organization. The most severe pandemic in recent history was the 1918 influenza pandemic, sometimes referred to as the "Spanish flu." The pandemic was estimated to have infected about 500 million people or one-third of the world's population and killed some 50 million worldwide. As on 21st March, all across the globe there are 298,262 cases registered. The death toll is 12836 and 94625 people have been recovered ever since the break out! One of the countries that suffered a lot other than the epicenter, China, is Italy. Italy has now around 53578 cases, with around 6000 cases reporting every day. The number of deaths is above 5000 and this number is more when compared to China. India has 329 cases and so far 5 patients have died. In US, there are 22,738 cases and the death toll has just crossed 300. This situation reminds every Christian to sit and pray for the nations, people, health workers and overall peace of the world. 2 Chronicles 7:14 says, "if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land". The verse clearly instructs is to pray and repent to see the favor of God. So please intercede for Italy and China especially. Please pray

THE RUSSIAN CONSTITUTION WILL BE AMENDED TO INCLUDE THE BELIEF IN GOD

Russia — Russian President Vladimir Putin has submitted to parliament a number of new constitutional changes, including amendments that mention God and stipulate that marriage is a union of a man and woman. Putin in January unleashed a political storm by proposing an overhaul of the constitution, the first changes to the basic law since 1993. Last month the Russian parliament's lower house unanimously approved the constitutional reform bill in a first reading after less than two hours of debate. Ahead of a second and key reading set for next week, Putin submitted 24 pages worth of amendments, said State Duma Speaker

Vyacheslav Volodin. "The president's amendments are the result of his dialogue with representatives of all factions (and) civil society," he said in comments released by the State Duma. The amendments enshrine the mention of Russians' "faith in God" and also stipulate that marriage is a heterosexual union, Deputy Speaker Pyotr Tolstoy told. Most Russians identify as Orthodox Christians but Russia is officially a secular state. The new amendments also ban giving away Russian territory and any call promoting such a move would also be outlawed. A member of a Kremlin-appointed constitutional working group, actor Vladimir

Mashkov, has suggested that such an amendment would ensure that Russia keeps Crimea — which it annexed from Ukraine in 2014 — or the Kuril Islands — disputed with Japan for decades — even after Putin quits power.

The 67-year-old Putin, who has dominated Russia for 20 years, has sought to cast himself as a defender of traditional values and rally support by promoting anti-Western and conservative ideas.

Putin's fourth stint in the Kremlin has overseen a strong pivot to more conservative policies, with groups promoting fundamentalist Orthodox Christian views gaining more legitimacy and liberal viewpoints attacked as Moscow's relations with the West have soured.

The second reading of the constitutional reform bill is expected to take place on March 10, said a spokeswoman for Pavel Krasheninnikov, co-chief of the constitutional working group.

A public vote on the constitutional reforms has been set for April 22. Analysts see Putin's plan to change the constitution as beginning preparations for succession when his current Kremlin term ends in 2024. Over the weekend more than 22,000 people rallied in central Moscow to call on Putin not to stay in power indefinitely.

The ravens have stopped bringing bread and meat; the brook of Cherith has dried up; the drought has been severe for a pretty long time; the famine doesn't seem to end. It is then that Elijah hears from God, "Arise, go to Zarephat, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there." (I Kings 17: 8, 9) Zarephat is also not a promising place. It is also hit by the same severe drought and famine. There has been no dew or rain for a long time. Starvation is there too. It is not wise to go there. Death is awaiting there. Elijah could have had such thoughts in his mind. So God added, "Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you." (Vs 8) How wonderful it is! Jehovah- Jireh is arranging everything for Elijah in Zarephat before he reaches there. Sometimes, we too have no hope for our Zarephaths in life. There are no possibilities; all doors are closed. There are only obstacles when we see ahead. But do not worry; the God of Elijah will provide for us in Zarephat. God tells Elijah that He has commanded a widow in Zarephat to feed him there. But the widow is not well-to do enough to feed someone; she doesn't have even what she and her son need. She is awaiting death with her son. When Elijah asks her for a piece of bread, she speaks about death. Anyone would be scared of the circumstances. Has God sent me to Zarephat to starve to death? But Elijah is not in fear because his trust is not on the widow but on God almighty. Quite often, we too doubt. We are afraid. Why are the situations like this? Why are all the doors closed? I started at God's commandment. It was God who wanted me to set off. Why am I in trouble then? Do not fear. The widow may be poor. The resources may not seem to be sufficient. But our God is rich enough to provide us with everything. Circumstances may be against us; but God is with us and for us. The widow has no hope of a better future; starve to death or commit suicide. There is not a third way. She sees people dying every day of starvation. There is genuine reason for her fear. She, with her son, is waiting to meet the same fate. No one can blame her for her fear. Many times, circumstances frighten us. The needs of the present and the future, sickness, debt, the future of our children, need of a home or a job, struggles in spiritual life and ministry- there are many things that cause fear. Still, be of good courage. The promises of God are greater than our fear; the hope we have is greater than our despair. Our sickness may be big; but the healing will be bigger. God has a wonderful plan for us. Do not be afraid of the adversities in Zarephat. If we were to perish, it would happen at the brook of Cherith. If it is God who has brought to Zarephat, He is preparing something greater and marvelous for us and through us. The widow's calculations are totally disappointing. The flour will exhaust; the oil will be no more; no way seems to open; she is waiting to die of starvation. But God's calculations are entirely different. She is not to die but to live for a number of years. She will feed many including Elijah. She will be short of nothing till there is rain in Israel. Realize that God has a good plan for us. We see the obstacles of today whereas God sees the possibilities of tomorrow. Believe in His promises. God's thoughts are not our thoughts; His ways are not our ways; they are for our good only, not for evil. The widow experiences that deliverance. Why? Because God has planned it for her. There may be sickness, fear of death, accidents, financial struggles, adversities and obstacles. But believe in God. He is taking you to greater levels of blessings. God has already planned for our deliverance. Our health, progress, future, spiritual growth- everything is in store for us. It will definitely come to us in the right time. Still, the problems of the widow do not come to an end. Her only son falls ill; he dies some day. When she comes out of one problem, there comes another one. There is enough for her son to eat now; he need not die. But he dies when there is enough food. But God also never yields to death. There is a resurrection for the widow's son. If God has planned to build us, no one can demolish us. If He has decided to keep us alive, nothing can kill us. If he plans to nourish us, nothing can arrest our growth. When there are more struggles, we will see more of God's miraculous work. Two miraculous deliverances happen in the life of the widow. One, her poverty has gone; two, her son has resurrected. What is the reason for these miracles? Nothing, but her obedience. Elijah asks for a small bread. Though it is small for Elijah, it is not small for her; it is all that she has. It will help her and her son to live for a few more hours or days. It is their life; their future. No one would give. Even if you are willing, you will not give. It is the most precious and much needed thing for her at the moment; her life giving bread. Though after the initial hesitation, she gives it. And that has brought all her deliverance. God has been asking us for things for a long time. We are obliged to give him. If we give, it will turn out to be for our good. Give Him that is the most precious for us. It is we ourselves that is the most valuable for us and for God. There is nothing more valuable than us. Worship, tithe, money, ministries- these are not what God wants from us. He needs us. We are not the people who are supposed to come and offer worship once in a week. Today, we have yielded ourselves to many other things and persons. Many use us; we give our time to them. But, is God able to use us? Do we have time to spend for God? Are we yet to give ourselves to God? What is the greatest blessing that the widow has had? Is it the prosperity that has come into her house? Is it the resurrection of her son? No. she says, "Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD from your mouth is the truth." (1 Kings 17: 24) She knows God; she knows that Elijah is a man of God; she knows that the word of the Lord is truth. That is the greatest blessing. We do not receive any revelation when our poverty is gone. Richness, healing, job, house, vehicle- we can have no heavenly revelations when our material possessions are multiplied. For that, life needs to be manifested. To receive life from God, some of our own life must perish first. That is the reason sometimes God allows some pain in our life. If we face that with gladness, God's plans will be manifested in our life. Sufferings are the threshold to blessings. The dew and the rains may stop; the crow may cease coming to us; Cherith may dry up; the flour and the oil may seem to be ending; death only may be visible before our eyes. Be of good courage. The God who provided for Elijah in Zarephat before he was sent there, the God who made the widow and her son, who were ready to embrace death, live for a long time, the God who brought the widow's son back from the hands of death; the same God is still alive and is at work for us. "Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear." Let us give ourselves to God; the fountains of goodness are to open for us.

In December 2019, PudiyaKovasi, his wife SomayKovasi, MukkaPudiyami, and his wife Gangi, converted to Christianity. These families made their decision to convert to Christianity after they received a healing prayer from a local Christian pastor named Peter Madkami.
On December 17, the two couples were called before a community meeting in Promilapadar village and asked to recant their Christian faith. When the couples refused, they were attacked and beaten with wooden sticks. Both couples were able to escape, but sustained several injuries. PudiyaKovasi had several injuries on his back and MuukaPudiyami was left bleeding.
Following the December 17 meeting, the Christian couples have been banned from Promilapandar village. They have been told that they will be killed if they return to the village. Pastor Peter Madkami has also been banned from Promilapandar.
Across India attacks on Christians and their places of worship continue to increase. Under the current BJP-led government, religious intolerance has been allowed to escalate unchecked. Religious conversion has historically been a sensitive topic in India. Now, with religious intolerance reaching unprecedented levels, mere rumors of religious conversion are enough to incite religiously motivated violence.

The Lord knows the way of the righteous as it is commanded in the word, “Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass (Psalm 37: 5). There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death (Proverbs 14: 12). I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my loving eye on you (Psalm 32: 8). The Lord averts the hearts of His children towards the right path. He directs their eyes to His wonders and makes them concentrate on them. The Lord lifts up all those who fall down. He raises them that are bowed down. When you move forward in your life and welcomed by impossibilities and desperations, you must realize that the Lord has gone before you and have made straight the crooked paths. It is certain that those who walk in His ways will never waver, nor stumble!

It is a great blessing to have the care of the angels for His people throughout the day and the night. They will protect your feet from being moved and will save you from the snares of the hunter. The Lord will chase away the epidemics that can cause you harm and He will keep you from dangers lurking in your away during the day and night. He, indeed, will scare away anything that can take your life away! Live as a righteous man and keep yourself and your house from all kinds of unrighteousness. Then you will find pleasure in the Almighty. The word says, “The memory of the righteous is a blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot.” (Psalm. 10: 7). “I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread” (Psalm 37:25). “Mankind will say, “Surely there is a reward for the righteous; surely there is a God who judges on earth” (Psalm 58: 11). “Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. He keeps all his bones; not one of them is broken. Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned. The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned” (Psalm 34:19-22).

anchoring his fractured sacrum to his pelvis. The surgery was successful. However, Ravi has revealed that “since the surgery, I have faced very severe pain, so intense in the night, especially, that I have been unable to sleep.” He assumed that the pain was part of expected postoperative recovery. It was not. During the surgery, his doctors discovered a tumor in his broken sacrum. A biopsy has proven the tumor to be a malignant sarcoma. The Mayo Clinic describes a sarcoma as a “broad group of cancers that begin in the bones and in the soft tissues. Soft tissue sarcoma forms in the tissues that connect, support and surround other body structures.

This includes muscle, fat, blood vessels, nerves, tendons, and the lining of your joints. There are more than 70 types of sarcoma. Treatment for sarcoma varies depending on sarcoma type, location and other factors.” Interestingly, the sarcoma failed to appear in either the CAT scan or the MRI. It required the surgeon’s eyes to detect it during the operation. Zacharias once again evidenced his deeply-rooted faith, expressing that he has “every belief God directed and prompted my surgeon to his discovery of this tumor.” Ravi and his wife, Margie, have begun meeting with specialists to analyze the new-found condition and to determine the best course of action. Zacharias said he has faith that God is with him through this difficult news. “We are trusting the Lord in this, and we believe we have already seen evidence of His hand. For example, the tumour did not show up on any previous scans and was only discovered by my surgeon identifying it during surgery,” his Facebook post reads. “We received literally thousands of messages from people all over the world saying you were praying. I have every belief God directed and prompted my surgeon to his discovery of this tumour. Margie and I and our family are so grateful for your continued prayers for the journey that lies ahead,” he added. He has asked Christians to continue to pray for him. “We are trusting the Lord for His purpose. Please do also pray that God will take away this horrific night pain, which is the most difficult part of waiting,” he said. Zacharias has thanked his team for their “love and support” throughout his ill health and states he will suspend all speaking engagements until at least the end of the summer.

the patients at Cremona Hospital’s intensive care unit have survived the virus. Additionally, the hospital has run out of beds. “Every time Samaritan’s Purse responds to a disaster, we respond in Jesus’ name,” Graham, who also heads the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, said. “So we’re going to the people in Italy who are suffering and dying to care for them, to love them and to tell them about God’s Son Jesus Christ.”

Kelly Suter, the medical director for the Samaritan’s Purse Respiratory Care Unit in Italy, said that medical professionals in the community are “grateful that we’ve been willing to come and fight beside them.” “Almost every person that I talk to almost breaks into tears,” Suter said. “They’ve felt abandoned. They’ve felt helpless. They’ve been looking for a miracle and they are absolutely grateful that we’re here and ready to fight alongside them.”

The North Carolina-based charity’s disease experts have worked in coordination with the World Health Organization and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to ensure all necessary precautions are taken.

Samaritan’s Purse’s field hospital exists to “provide emergency medical relief in disaster-stricken areas where medical infrastructure is damaged, overwhelmed or nonexistent.” The field hospital has been used to treat thousands of patients over the years.

The hospital was deployed in the Bahamas after Hurricane Dorian in September 2019 and Mozambique after Cyclone Idai in April 2019. It was also deployed in Ecuador in April 2016 after a 7.8 magnitude earthquake and in Iraq in December 2016 during the battle against the Islamic State.

for other countries too. So let's pray that this epidemic will come to an end. This is also a time to obey the government over you! Many countries are forced to take stringent measures to stop the spread of Covid-19 and as a result there is a ban for gathering, resulting in the cancellation of religious services including church services and meetings. The believers are expected to follow these ultimatums as the Lord is the one who has placed authorities over them (Romans 13: 1-7). So obey the government and worship the Lord in the comfort of your home. The Lord knows everything! May the good Lord keep you all harms and dangers!! oped for birds could be applicable to humans – and they believed that an effective treatment could be developed for humans within three months, they said.

David Zigdon, Chief Operating Officer of the Institute, said that “there is a great need for an immediate solution to human infection of coronavirus, and we have been working to do that nonstop. The solution we are developing against COVID-19 virus has proven effective, and we believe a version for human treatment can be ready within eight to 10 weeks. That would be followed by a 90-day test period to ensure safety. The treatment we developed for birds is given orally, and the treatment we are developing for humans will also be given orally.”

Director of the Institute Professor Dan Levanon said the speed with which the treatment could be used would depend on regulatory approval. “Under the current conditions in which the disease is causing terrible losses, I believe that state regulators would be very lenient in the various stages that the treatment must pass before it is approved, of course ensuring that it will do no harm via side effects and the like. Under normal conditions, approval of a treatment like this would likely take several years,” he said.

The idea that we have the same power that Jesus has when it comes to authority is mind blowing!

It's amazing to know that Jesus has given us the tools and power to heal others and ourselves, to command /rebuke the wicked and command doors to be open. Mathew 7:7 says “ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be open to you”

I pray that in the next few weeks you are able to spend time and tap into that resource that can make all this happen- Jesus. That you are able to use the authority that has been given to us to break the chains that have captivated us, heal the sick, break

bondages, break generational curses, gain

back everything we have lost, have victory over our lives in area we have failed and to strive to pursue Jesus unapologetically.

In Luke10:19 Jesus said, “I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.” Let's activate that in our lives by practicing it daily in obedience to God. I encourage everyone,during our 21 days of fasting, to spend time in the Word of God,in prayer and to work on areas in your life that needs healing and manifestation of God's power.

In an age where truth is relative, Lotz reminded attendees that John 16:13 refers to the Holy Spirit as “the Spirit of truth.” “So get out the Word, read it, take it in for yourself, and then get it out as much as you can. He works through the Word that He has breathed Himself. ... Read the Word with a heart that believes every word is from the Lord, and you listen for Him to whisper to you through the pages.” The more Christians delve into Scripture, the more they will become like Christ, she added.

“In Jesus, there’s no meanness,” she said. “There’s no unkindness. There’s no selfishness. There’s no unforgiveness. There’s no pridefulness. There’s no bitterness. There’s no sinfulness at all. And when the Holy Spirit comes into you and me, He begins to make us holy as He is holy.”

The Holy Spirit prays for us when we don’t have words to pray (Romans 8:26), the evangelist said, adding: “The Holy Spirit takes my cries before the Father. He puts words to them, dresses them up, and turns them into prayers. He can take what I’m feeling and thinking — how I’m hurting on the inside — and translate it into a prayer before the Father.”

“The Holy Spirit’s priority is the written Word of God,” she concluded. “He draws us into the written Word that we might know the Living Word. His priority is Jesus, and He wants us to know Jesus, to love Jesus, to obey Jesus, to serve Jesus, to bring Him glory. So He draws us into the Word of God that we might know Him like that.”

Lotz, who finished treatment for breast cancer in October of last year, shares how the Holy Spirit comforted her throughout the painful process in her book, Jesus in Me: Experiencing the Holy Spirit as a Constant Companion.

As she traveled from appointment to appointment, Lotz said she felt the Holy Spirit give her a “sense of purpose.” “Again and again, I was stopped by other patients or visitors who recognized me, people who said they were praying for me or who asked me to pray for them,” she said. “I had multiple opportunities to share the Gospel and to pray with nurses, technicians, doctors, and many others who treated me. His whisper changed my attitude from that of being a cancer victim to being on a mission as His ambassador.” After her sixth chemo treatment, the evangelist began questioning whether she should continue chemo: “The weakness and weariness were debilitating. The side effects were daunting,” she explained. However, she felt the Holy Spirit confirm to her that she was to continue chemo. “My next and last treatment would be my seventh time! So as much as I resisted the ‘muck and mud,’ in obedience to God’s leading, I co-mmited to complete the seventh infusion,” she said.

Based on her experiences, Lotz encouraged others to “read your Bible. Every day. Study it. Learn to love it. Live by it.” “Listen for the whisper of the Spirit, who speaks through the pages of the Word that He Himself has inspired and through the words on the pages, which are God-breathed,” she concluded.

Infectious disease; The Sign of Jesus' Coming or Punishment for the Wickedness of the World?

Pastor Paul Mala

"You know that man is growing intellectually and mentally exhausted today. War, famine, terrorism, natural disasters, epidemics, economic crises are all global problems. Suicide, murder violence, unrighteous drunkenness, witchcraft, hate, envy, jealousy, selfishness, deception, bribery has poisoned the heart of man.

The above are the words written in the Gospel Letters that we (the Gospel Communications Ministry) have been sending out since 1992.

Jesus Christ has warned of a global epidemic (Luke 21:11). Bible believers know that this is a sign of the coming of our Lord. The corona virus has been reported in more than 100 countries around the world, including India.

On the other hand, the wickedness of the world is only increasing. Society is moving to a point where nobody can solve anything. All the judicial systems are collapsing. There are those who believe this to be God's intervention, like the way God dealt with Nineveh in the past.

The people of the city of Nineveh, the capital of Assyria, lay in the lap of prosperity (773-755 BC).

There were violations of the law, riots breaking out in the streets, idolatry, murder of women and children, atrocities in the houses, destroying the lakes, setting fires, destroying farms and agriculture, waste being deposited in the streets, holding hostage of high ranked people and groups of women, nudity, prostitution and increased theft, destroying buildings, exploitation and disobeying the rulers and the laws of the land.

The word "wickedness" is used in the book of Jonah for all these evil deeds. When we read the books of the prophets Nahum and Zephaniah, we find that the descriptions of the word "wickedness".

The rulers and authorities were not able to put an end to the evil of Nineveh. Then God sent his servant

Jonah the prophet to direct the intervention of the Almighty God.

The corona virus, which is raging like a storm in the world today, has terrified the human community. There are lifestyle changes in the fields of employment, education and finance. There are many lessons to be learned. There is a decrease among men in cheating, violations of the law, murder, unrighteousness, selfishness, superstition, to other forms of idolatry and to communalism, and in entertainment and sports by forgetting God. The fear of God is on the inside of almost everyone. All those who despised the gospel were given a way to think.

The people of God are united and not worried. Their hope and faith have increased. They rejoice in the fulfilment of the prophecy. Those who are not saved do not know this truth. May we continue to increase in the work of the Lord.

ANNE GRAHAM LOTZ: CHRISTIANS MUST RELY ON HOLY SPIRIT'S POWER AMID 'MORAL AND SPIRITUAL FREE FALL

Anne Graham Lotz, daughter of the late Billy Graham, urged Christians to seek the power of the Holy Spirit to combat the "moral and spiritual free fall" taking place in the United States. Speaking at the Closing Gala Dinner at NRB's 2020 Christian Media Convention on Feb. 28, Lotz, president of AnGeL Ministries in Raleigh, North Carolina, highlighted the aspects of the Holy Spirit found in John 16:5-15. She stressed that the Holy Spirit is a "person," not an "it." "He's not a dove. He's not a flame of fire. He's not an ecstatic experience. The Holy Spirit is a divine, invisible person. He has a mind to think. He has a will to act. He has emotions to feel," she said, adding that the Holy Spirit is present in all believers. "When we come by faith to the cross, claim Jesus as our Savior and our Lord, open up our hearts and receive Him into ourselves, He comes into us in the person of the Holy Spirit. He will never leave us, and He will never forsake us. It's a permanent relationship. Praise God," she said. "Today, in our politically correct culture, as we're in this moral and spiritual free fall in our nation, it's going to take Holy Spirit courage, boldness, and strength to stand against that tide and hold the line for the Gospel and the Word of God," she

SAMARITAN'S PURSE OPENS FIELD HOSPITAL IN NORTHERN ITALY TO HELP CORONAVIRUS PATIENTS

The evangelical humanitarian charity run by Franklin Graham, Samaritan's Purse, opened a 68-bed emergency field hospital in northern Italy as the local medical system struggles to deal with the coronavirus.

On Friday (20/03/2020), the field hospital opened just outside the city of Milan. According to Samaritan's Purse, the coronavirus outbreak has overwhelmed the medical infrastructure in the area as there are over 40,000 confirmed cases of the virus in the European country.

"The situation in Italy is desperate," Samaritan's Purse CEO Franklin Graham, the son of the late evangelist Billy Graham, said in a statement. "The hospitals are overrun and people are dying. We are called to respond in hard places. That's why our team of disaster response specialists are on the front lines — providing life-saving medical care and sharing God's love to people who are hurting."

Over 3,400 people have died in Italy as a result of coronavirus, according to Johns Hopkins University & Medicine's Coronavirus Resource Center.

As families have been left without access to necessary care, Samaritan's Purse airlifted its emergency field hospital, medical team and critical aid to northern Italy on Monday by way of the charity's DC-8 cargo plane. In total, 20 tons of medical equipment was shipped along with respiratory therapists, doctors, and nurses. According to Samaritan's Purse, the hospital began receiving patients as soon as it opened. The field hospital features a respiratory care unit and is located adjacent to Cremona Hospital, which suspended all medical care except for maternity and pediatrics because of the influx of people who have coronavirus.

According to Samaritan's Purse, none of
